STORYTELLING COACH + CONSULTANT
CO-FOUNDER, PAGES FOR GOOD

WORKSHOPS + PRESENTATIONS

1. Reclaim Your Storytelling Roots

Owning and shaping your organizations narrative has never been more vital to advancing your mission.

2. Find Stories To Power Your Growth

Source + amplify client, staff, volunteer and community stories to strategically reach your goals.

3. Lead Like A Storyteller

Stop convincing. Start connecting. Leaders must wrap their vision in a story that fires the imagination.

4. Five Stories Every Board Member Must Be Able To Tell

Getting visibility for your organization counts for nothing if leaders can't make their point.

EVERY WORKSHOP IS CUSTOMIZED FOR YOUR GROUP

What People Say

I I'm feeling confident and ready to weave stories into my conversations and bring dry figures to life.

"Wow! Storytelling is much more than helping to raise funds, friends or awareness, it's truly a leadership tool to inspire and drive performance."

"Today's session was right on message and right on time. Lots to take home and use. Thanks Annette!"

MEET ANNETTE

Annette Power is a storytelling coach, communications consultant, community health activist, strategic facilitator and co-founder of Pages for Good, a branding and communications firm dedicated exclusively to healthcare and non-profit clients.

With over two decades working in media and communications, she has helped countless mission driven executives, community organizations, healthcare centres, national charities and grassroots groups tell their story. Through brand building, successful campaigns and national headlines, Annette's work has helped to challenge laws, change lives and champion hearts.

With her engaging nature and personal approach, you and your entire team will be entertained by humorous anecdotes and real-life advice as well as moved to action by her passion and powerful techniques.
